

Bring you

A Never Before Opportunity For Special Needs Parents

Reading Workshop With Natalie Hale

For Educators, Therapists and Parents Of Children With Special Needs

This reading program draws from years of innovation and research to provide developmentally appropriate books and strategies to make a reader out of a child with special needs. The program follows research that demonstrates children learn more effectively if we teach them with right Method, Motivation and Material.

Come and be a part of the 'Reading Revolution'

A reading workshop for special educators, therapists, teachers and parents of children with special needs is going to take place on 3rd April 2015, at Hotel Radisson, Paschim Vihar, New Delhi. The workshop will be conducted by Natalie Hale, the award-winning author and reading consultant from USA. This workshop will offer an insight into a well researched methodology and an effective technique to teach reading to learners of any age with Down syndrome and other diagnoses involving developmental delays, e.g.: Autism, ASD, and PDDNOS.

About Natalie:

Natalie Hale

Founder, Special Reads for Special Needs

- National Speaker
 - NDSC
 - NADS
 - NDSS
- Award Winning Author
- Reading Educator & Consultant
- Reading Program Developer

Natalie Hale is an award-winning author, Reading educator and consultant, reading program developer, parent of an adult son with Down syndrome (Jonathan, 30), and for over 20 years, a national speaker on the topic of teaching reading to learners with Down syndrome and other developmental delays. Her most recent book was published by Woodbine House: “Down Syndrome Parenting 101: Must-Have Advice for Making Your Life Easier,” which won the Best Special Needs Parenting Book of 2012 About.com Reader’s Choice Award. Also through Woodbine House is her workbook for teens and adults titled, “Managing My Money: Banking and Budgeting Basics.” Her book for siblings, “Oh, Brother! Growing Up With a Special Needs Sibling,” was published by the American Psychological Association.

About the Workshop:

The workshop will include current best practice, the optimal order of learning to read, sight word learning vs. phonemic awareness, teaching nonverbal children, teaching older non-readers, errorless testing techniques, how to engage motivation, the Fast Flash method, comprehension tips, and guidelines for creating personal books and adapting trade books.

If You Are A Parent:

of a young child, teenager or an adult with special needs and want to give him/her the gift of reading then reach out to us. We believe there is no age to learn reading and with this workshop you’d be able to help your child without depending on teachers and other resources. Come and be empowered!

If You Are A Professional:

If you are a teacher, special educator, counsellor or occupational therapist, you will receive 3 credit hour rating and a certificate for attending the workshop.

Get Yourself Registered Today To Make A Reader Out Of Your child

Registration is available on first come first serve basis. (Limited seats)

Date : 3rd April 2015 (Saturday)

Venue: Hotel Radisson, Paschim Vihar, New Delhi.
Timing: 10AM- 5PM

Take Away: A special booklet by Natalie to help you implement the program immediately

Fee: Rs 4000/- (Early Bird till 28th February 2015)
Thereafter Rs 5000/- till 30th March 2015
(Includes lunch, tea and snacks)

To be Sent to:

Name: Deepa Garwa A/c No.082701506198
Bank: ICICI bank, Prashant Vihar Delhi IFSC Code: ICIC0000827

Email: specialreadsindia@gmail.com Ph: 8826598445, 9811266992, 011-45091520